We Warmly Welcome You to Experience
Aegean Evening III ...

The must-attend Greek party of the year!

~ Fabulous Greek cuisine & drink by the Hazelwood Inn ~

~ Live Greek music by Apollonia ~

~ Superb Silent & Live Auctions ~

This year, Aegean Evening III will be held at the Walters Art Museum to highlight their blockbuster exhibition, "Heroes: Mortals & Myths in Ancient Greece." And since it's almost Halloween, we encourage people to wear masks with cocktail attire or come in full, themed costume!

The Baltimore-Piraeus Sister City Committee was founded more than 25 years ago to promote cultural and business exchanges between the port cities of Baltimore, USA and Piraeus, Greece. The committee's programs include business and community interaction; technical assistance; cultural exchanges; citizens' visits; and is sponsored through the Baltimore Mayor's Office of International & Immigrant Affairs.

Past Activities: Represent Baltimore and the State of Maryland at the Hermes International Expo in Atlantic City; Twenty-fifth Anniversary Gala "Aegean Evening I" to benefit the Committee & Cooley's Anemia research at Johns Hopkins Children's Center; Musical Performance of works by Grammy-nominated Greek composer Christopher Theofanidis at the Peabody Conservatory, including "Song of Piraeus"; Sponsorship & Presence at "Noontime New Year: A Celebration of Greece" at Port Discovery, the Children's Museum in Baltimore; more.
